I. Do you own a horse? Yes No II. How many years have you been riding?

III. Please tell us more (size of horse and frequency of access):

IV. Using the criteria below, what is your riding experience?

Riding Experience:

- Complete beginner: never ridden a horse or maybe once or twice sat on one.
- Beginner: ridden several times. Started to steer a horse and stop. I understand the basics of riding. Trotted on several occasions, not able to canter.
- Novice: can mount and dismount unassisted. Trot (comfortably) and rise to the trot. Confident at canter.
- Intermediate: confident and able to canter comfortably in cross country seat and balanced sitting in the saddle. Able to trot and canter for longer distances and control a reasonably trained horse at all paces in open country.
- Advanced intermediate: as intermediate but rides regularly and understands correct leg at canter. Comfortable on more responsive or forward-going horse.
- Advanced: understands all the above and rides regularly. Soft hands, independent seat, able to handle a responsive/spirited horse. Accustomed to riding a variety of different horses.

V. What type of riding activities do you do? E.g. hacking, eventing, hunting, endurance etc:

VI. How many hours per week do you ride (on average), per week?
